The Devil Will Provide
By: Robert Orren

That is not a typo—it does indeed say “The Devil Will Provide.”

We find comfort in the phrase “God will provide,” and we find proof that He provides in God’s word. In Psalm 34:10 we read, “The young lions lack and suffer hunger; But those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.” In Psalm 37:25 the Psalmist says, “I have been young, and now am old; Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, Nor his descendants begging bread.”

But we must understand, too, that if we seek out sinful desires, Satan is more than happy to provide sin after sin. Consider King David, as he sought to find out information about Bathsheba. It was not so much that he saw, but that he wanted to pursue what he saw. Satan was happy to provide him the opportunity to find out as much as he wanted to know (2 Samuel 11).

Consider Judas in John 12:1-6. He was appalled that perfume would be “wasted” when it could have been sold and added to the treasury. But his motives are made clear in vs 6. “This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it,” John 12:6. Judas was a thief at heart and Satan provided him with an opportunity to be in charge of the money.

This is why it is so important to never let down your guard for a moment. If you are seeking the momentary pleasures of sin, you will not have to look hard. The devil will provide.

“Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.” 1 Peter 5:8

Have a great week!
