Being Faithful To God During Difficult times Robert Goff, Jr.

I think it's Dave Ramsey that says when asked how he is doing, "Better than I deserve." I certainly am one of those (but aren't we all?). Life has been good to me far beyond anything I could ever have imagined. Of course, there have been bumps in the road of life for all of us.

When everything is going well, it's relatively easy to fear (Give reverence to) God and commit to following Him. It's when the "bumps in the road of life" come that we are challenged.

Job lived a good life for several years. He had a large family and material possessions. But that changed and he lost everything, including his children, possessions, and his health (Job 1).

His friends meant well but they were of no comfort or encouragement to him and he didn't understand why this was happening to him. But he refused to allow unanswered questions and unfounded charges from his friends and bad advice from his wife to cause him to forsake His God. Apparently, Job understood faithfulness to God doesn't depend on how life treats us.

God has promised us that He will never leave us nor forsake us (Hebrews 13:5). Therefore, "Be strong and of good courage, do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the Lord your God, He is the one who goes with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you" (Deuteronomy 31:6)
