I'm Not a Mind Reader...But God Is
By Robert Orren

"Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, dwell on these things." Philippians 4:8

In honor of mothers and their near universal catch-phrases, I want to bring up one that we probably all heard at least once from our mothers...

"I'm not a mind reader."

But what if you were a mind reader? What if you could read my mind? What if you knew what everyone was thinking about you? Would you even want to know?

I remember a science fiction television show in which one of the characters had a supernatural ability to read minds. In fact, before he could control his ability, he could hear everything that everyone around him was thinking at the same time. As you can imagine, not all of those thoughts were pleasant ones. Most of the things that he heard were things that he wished he didn't hear.

I know it can be hard to control your thoughts, but it is something we must make an effort to do. Don't dwell on sinful and immoral thoughts. Dwell on the things mentioned in Philippians 4:8. In 1 Chronicles 28:9, David told Solomon that God "searches all hearts" and "understands every intent of the thoughts."

I'm glad I am not a mind reader; but, I wonder if God is glad that He is.

Have a great week!
