

From Robert's Desk

An Open Door
By: Robert Orren

"Life is a series of hellos and goodbyes. I'm afraid it's time for goodbye again."—William Joel

This may be the saddest bulletin article I've ever written! I now understand the emotions contained in Acts 20:36-38... (although I beg you not to fall on my neck and kiss me). ☺

What can I say about a congregation that embraced us as we arrived and is continuing to embrace us as we leave? The first part is expected. The second part should be expected of the Lord's people. But sadly in many congregations, parting isn't always on good terms. I can't find the words to thank you for the selfless support you continue to show for my family's well-being. I feel like you are doing what Paul asked of the church in Colossae.

"Continue earnestly in prayer, being vigilant in it with thanksgiving; meanwhile praying also for us, that God would open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in chains, that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak." Colossians 4:2-4

I am confident that God is showing us an open door. Thank you for helping us walk through it. But don't lose sight of the open door that is in front of the Cullendale church of Christ. There are opportunities for this congregation to shine a light and lead others to Christ.

We will miss you until our paths cross again!

"How lucky I am to have known someone who was so hard to say goodbye to."—Unknown
